Credit Union of Colorado Foundation awards seven scholarships

DENVER – Seven students at Colorado community colleges have been awarded a total of $7,500 in scholarships from the Credit Union of Colorado Foundation.

The scholarship recipients, their colleges and fields of study are: Renee McDuffy, Colorado Northwestern Community College, dental hygiene; Jennifer Anne Clark, Red Rocks Community College, criminal justice; Aryana Hatami, Aurora Community College, graphic/web design; Rebecca Dolan, Front Range Community College, horticulture; Alyssa Fryberger, Pueblo Community College, machining; Rebecca Southern, Pueblo Community College, physical therapy; and Jacob Piper, Northeastern Junior College, business.

The foundation works with the Foundation for Colorado Community Colleges to administer the scholarship program. Each recipient was awarded up to $1,500, depending on whether the student is fulltime or part-time. Applicants had to be members of Credit Union of Colorado, be enrolled in one of 13 Colorado community colleges, demonstrate a commitment to community service, and meet qualifications for financial need.

About the Credit Union of Colorado Foundation

The Credit Union of Colorado Foundation was founded in 2012 to build upon Credit Union of Colorado's long history of philanthropic commitment to its members and the communities where they reside. The foundation primarily focuses on two areas of interest: human services and education.
