Credit Union of Colorado Foundation to help with flood relief efforts

The Credit Union of Colorado Foundation has announced it will donate $25,000 to help fund relief efforts for those impacted by recent flooding across Colorado.

In addition to this outright donation, the Credit Union of Colorado has agreed to accept donations on behalf of the foundation to aid in this relief. Any money collected by the Credit Union will go directly to this effort. Donations can be made in-person at any of the credit union's 15 statewide branches or by sending a check payable to Credit Union of Colorado Foundation, noting the funds are to be allocated to flood relief. Learn more by visiting www.cuofco.org or calling 800-444-4816.

"Our hearts go out to everyone in Colorado who has been impacted by this disaster," said Foundation chairperson, Doug Schneider. "We are committed to aiding Colorado communities as they recover from this disaster."

About the Credit Union of Colorado Foundation

The Credit Union of Colorado Foundation was founded in 2012 to build upon Credit Union of Colorado's long history of philanthropic commitment to its members and the communities where they reside. The foundation primarily focuses on two areas of interest: human services and education.
